High-Level Nepali Delegation Observes India's PM Gati Shakti Initiative

A Nepali delegation led by Hon. Dr. Ram Kumar Phuyal, member of the National Planning Commission of Nepal (NPC) is on a visit to India from 13 to 20 October 2023, to gain insights into India's PM Gati Shakti Initiative. The delegation comprises Dr. Jay Kant Raut and Dr. Anita Shah Dhungana, also members of the NPC, as well as 16 Joint Secretaries and two Under Secretaries from various Ministries of the Government of Nepal.

The delegation held productive discussions with representatives of the Ministry of Commerce and Industries of India on 14 October 2023 in Delhi. Following this, they embarked on a visit to Ahmedabad, Gujarat, from 16 to 18 October 2023, to witness the PM Gati Shakti Initiative in action and engage with key officials of the Government of Gujarat. The visit also included insightful tours of Bhaskaracharya National Institute for Space Applications and Geo-Informatics (BISAG-N) and Gujarat International Finance Tec (GIFT) City.

The visit culminated with a series of enriching meetings and experience-sharing sessions with high-level officials from the Railway Board, Niti Aayog, and the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT) of India.

The delegation's visit served as a pivotal platform for cross-border collaboration and knowledge exchange, underlining the joint commitment of Nepal and India to enhance development cooperation.
