Press Release

Foreign Secretary Ms. Sewa Lamsal participated in the inaugural session of the eighth edition of the Asia Economic Dialogue (AED 2024) in Pune, India, today, along with the Foreign Secretaries of India and Bangladesh.

The theme of AED 2024, being held from 29 February to 2 March, is "Geo-economic challenges in an Era of Flux." The inaugural session focused on promoting economic integration in South Asia, including expanding all forms of connectivity. Foreign Secretary Lamsal stressed the need for policy initiatives to enable additional cooperation in the region, particularly in the hydropower, agriculture, and tourism sectors.

Earlier today, the Foreign Secretary visited Symbiosis International University, where she met with university officials and interacted with Nepali students.

The Foreign Secretary will leave for Nepal on 1 March 2024.
